

The Second 4NCL weekend in the Paragon Hotel, Birmingham

Tom Hinks (pictured) returns from Prague for the weekend, where he has now moved to as he takes on Guildford newcomer Mohammed Tissir. Tissir sacked a piece but failed to cause Hinks-Edwards much trouble for it. IM Tissir is a recent addition to the champion Guildford team, but with his disasterous start of 0/4 including 3 non titled players, he will have to improve dramatically if he is to keep his place next season.

England's youngest GM, David Howell balances out Tissir with 2/2 for Guildford.

Pia Cramling gets ready to finish off IM Karl Mah with a mating attack down the h file. I was kicking myself after missing several opportunities to break down Mah's defense on the Saturday before the game ended in a draw, but Cramling show's the way to do it.

Danny King, wins against Carleton, on the lower boards for Guildford, in fairly straight forward manner.
